However, if your book contains priceless ? and more importantly NEW info, references, or techniques ? then it is best to purpose to cost it on the high end.

After you determine your aim, you should figure out what your viewers's need is for your ebook. For example, does your guide clear up a selected drawback? If it does, and solves it in a way that hasn't been written about in 100 other ebooks, you can be able to obtain high sales at a high price. If your e book solves a problem or answers questions in a brand new and unique way, it's best to value your e-book as high as you possibly can go. Do that by making a sales page for the brand new guide, but do not include a value on that page. Instead, add plenty of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a value to your ebook.

Another technique is to test out prices by creating a number of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different prices on each page. Be sure that your gross sales copy is precisely the same on every web page, and contains your promoting-deal with sentence. Then work out for every web page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and sales of your book. This may let you know what your optimum price is.
